About Arbimex Trade

Arbimex is a platform designed for individuals in the cryptocurrency realm who seek innovation and sustainable income. Established with the vision of our founder, David Fernandez, our platform aims to capitalize on arbitrage opportunities within the cryptocurrency sector and make this potential accessible to a wide user base. Arbimex's technological infrastructure includes advanced artificial intelligence trading bots. These trading bots are entirely programmed for arbitrage and continuously monitor price differences across cryptocurrency exchanges to identify arbitrage opportunities. This strategic approach enables Arbimex to establish a consistent and sustainable revenue model.

The success of Arbimex largely relies on its harmoniously working team, each specialized in their respective fields. This team is composed of individuals with profound expertise in software development, financial analysis, and cryptocurrency markets. To achieve the platform's goals, each member adopts the best practices and strategies within their specific domain. We believe that with the technological innovations and strategic partnerships we are continually planning to expand, this vision will position Arbimex at the forefront of the industry.

Meet the leading man

David Fernandez is a Spanish entrepreneur and founder of Arbimex. He is also the mastermind behind Arbimex's artificial intelligence software. Trained as a computer engineer, David Fernandez completed his education at the Universidad de Almeria in Spain.

He worked in software development and cybersecurity for several banks, including Caixabank, for many years. With a strong interest in cryptocurrencies as an investor, Fernandez became acquainted with the crypto world in 2018. Due to his growing passion for this realm, he decided to leverage his software expertise in this field, laying the groundwork for the Arbimex concept. Fernandez, born in 1988, is married and a father of one.

Step into a new and bright future with Arbimex

We have been working diligently for a long time to create significant value in the crypto space.

Our philosophy

Our core philosophy is built on transparency, user-centricity, and continuous learning. To earn and maintain the trust of our users, we adhere to principles of fair transactions, open communication, and continuous improvement.

Our Mission

At Arbimex, our aim is to provide our users with a sustainable and trustworthy income model within the cryptocurrency world. Utilizing our AI-powered trading bots, we evaluate continuously emerging arbitrage opportunities to create passive income opportunities for our users.

Our Vision

As a leading organization in the industry, we aspire to become a globally recognized brand by offering innovative and effective solutions in the cryptocurrency world. We will continuously pioneer technological innovations and industry developments to support our users' financial freedom and contribute value to the crypto ecosystem.

Our Goals

At Arbimex, we have set certain goals for ourselves

Short-term plans

- By making additions to our payment infrastructure, we aim to reach a minimum of 15 deposit and withdrawal methods.
- Enriching the affiliate program by adding new rewards.
- Launch of our mobile application on both IOS and Android.
- Adding a comprehensive bounty program to our website.

Mid-term plans

- Integration of our trading bots with new cryptocurrency exchanges.
- Developing the Arbimex token and listing it on a decentralized exchange.
- Holding our first major conference in Spain with all our leaders invited.

Long-term plans

- Integration our trading bots with at least 20 global cryptocurrency exchanges.
- Opening a physical office in Spain or the United Kingdom.
- Listing of Arbimex token on one of the TOP-5 cryptocurrency exchanges.

Pricing

- We offer four different bot rental plans that provide increasing daily returns as the term length extends. On business days, we offer returns ranging from

1.00% to 2.10%
DAILY

- As soon as a plan reaches the end of its term, it expires and no longer generates returns. In this case, 100% of the deposit is credited to your account.

General Questions

What is Arbimex?

Arbimex is a platform established for individuals in the cryptocurrency world seeking innovation and sustainable income and was created to capitalize on arbitrage opportunities in the cryptocurrency sector and share this potential with a broad user base

What does Arbimex offer to the clients?

At Arbimex, we offer our users the opportunity to generate passive income without taking any risks or leaving their homes. All you need to do is register on our platform and choose one of our four bot rental plans for investment. Our trading bots will then start automated trading on your behalf.

How does the Arbimex platform make money?

The daily returns of Arbimex's artificial intelligence trading bots typically exceed the promised profit rates in the investment plans. Additionally, our trading bots operate 24/7, capturing new profit opportunities every second. In return, we provide payments to our users on business days. Therefore, after deducting reference payments, any profit generated over the weekend belongs to our platform.

What information is required to start with Arbimex?

In today's world, the security of personal information is paramount. Therefore, we do not ask for your personal details. To register, simply choose a username, specify your country, and set an email address along with a password. For added anonymity and security, you can create a fictitious username.

Is Arbimex a legal company?

Yes, Arbimex is a legally registered offshore company with its headquarters located in the United Kingdom. You can find our company certificate here

Arbimex is a Spanish company. Why was the company established in the United Kingdom?

Arbimex is an offshore company, and the primary reason for its establishment in the United Kingdom is to be exempt from taxes. Our platform can more comfortably distribute daily profits to users engaged in cryptocurrency trading due to this tax exemption. If we were paying taxes, our investment plans wouldn't achieve these returns. Another advantage of an offshore company is the freedom to manage the company from anywhere we desire. However, as a company subject to laws, we still have obligations to our users.

Who is David Fernandez?

David Fernandez is a Spanish entrepreneur and founder of Arbimex. He is also the mastermind behind Arbimex's artificial intelligence software.
